

18-2/32

1000-1100

Handwritten text in Ottoman Turkish script, consisting of approximately 15 lines. The text is written in a cursive style and appears to be a formal document or report. It begins with a header that includes the name of the Ministry of Education and the specific department (Milli Genel Müdürlüğü). The main body of the text contains several paragraphs of prose, with some lines starting with honorifics or titles. The handwriting is dense and fills most of the page.

Handwritten text in Ottoman Turkish script, consisting of approximately 10 lines. This section continues the narrative or report from the previous section. It maintains the same cursive style and formal tone. The text concludes with a final line that may be a signature or a closing statement. The overall appearance is that of a historical administrative document.